

“and the rib which the Lord God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. Then the man said, “This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man””

-Genesis 2:22-23

“Now the serpent was more subtle than any other wild creature that the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God say, “You should not eat of any tree of the garden?”

And the woman said to the serpent,

“We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden; but God said,

“You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, neither shall you touch it lest you die;” But the serpent said to the woman, “You will not die.””

-Genesis 3:1-4

So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one
wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and
she also gave some to her husband, and
he ate.

-Genesis 3:6

“Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves aprons. And they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden.”

-Genesis 3:7-8

“Therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which he was taken. He drove out the man; and at the east of the garden of Eden he placed the cherubim, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.”
